Song Recommendations and Activities for 'Revelation':

1. Song: "He’s Got the Whole World in His Hands"

- Lyrics/Paraphrase: While not directly from Revelation, this song reinforces God's sovereignty and care for all creation, themes found in Revelation.

- Actions:
- “Whole World”: Cup hands together like holding a globe.
- “In His Hands”: Raise hands to the sky.
- “Little Baby”: Gesture rocking a baby.

- Connection to Lesson: This song helps children understand that God is in control, much like the unfolding of events described in Revelation. It emphasizes God's omnipotence and care.

2. Song: "When We All Get to Heaven" (simplified version)

- Lyrics/Paraphrase: Modify lyrics to focus on joy and heaven, e.g., "When we sing with Jesus, what a day of joy it will be!"

- Actions:
- “Sing”: Pretend to hold a microphone.
- “Heaven”: Point upwards.
- “Joy”: Clap hands and smile.

- Connection to Lesson: This song highlights hope and the promise of heaven found in Revelation, encouraging excitement about Jesus' return.

3. Song: "I Am the Alpha and Omega"

- Lyrics/Paraphrase: Focus on Jesus as the beginning and end, such as, “Jesus is the A to Z, He’s always with you and me.”

- Actions:
- “Alpha and Omega”: Trace an 'A' and 'O' in the air.
- “With you”: Use sign language for “with” by bringing fist together.

- Connection to Lesson: Reinforces the message of Jesus being eternal and present, central themes in Revelation.

4. Worship Activity: “Heaven Art Mural”

- Activity Description: Create a large mural as a class depicting scenes from Revelation’s vision of heaven like streets of gold, the throne, and angels.

- Connection to Lesson: Encourages creativity and allows students to visualize and engage with the biblical imagery from Revelation.

5. Worship Activity: “Praise Parade”

- Activity Description: Organize an indoor parade where students march around with instruments, singing and expressing joy, symbolizing celebration described in Revelation.

- Connection to Lesson: This connects to the celebrations and praises in heaven, as described in Revelation, helping students experience the joy of worship.

These activities and songs are designed to help elementary students grasp the essence of Revelation in an accessible and engaging way.
