

Quiz

Quiz: Exodus 22

Multiple-Choice Questions

1. What should happen if someone steals an ox or a sheep and then sells it?
 - a) They must return the animal.
 - b) They should pay back two animals.
 - c) They must pay back five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.
2. What is the rule if someone's animal grazes in another person's field?
 - a) The owner must pay them in silver.
 - b) The owner must give them an animal.
 - c) The owner must compensate with the best from their own field.
3. According to Exodus 22, what must happen if someone starts a fire and it spreads to thorn bushes?
 - a) They should ignore it.
 - b) They must pay for the damaged crops.
 - c) They can take the burnt wood.

True/False Questions

4. If someone borrows an animal and it is hurt or dies while the owner is not there, the borrower must make full restitution.
True / False
5. Under Exodus 22, sorcery is encouraged among the people.
True / False

Short-Answer Questions

6. What should be done if you find your enemy's lost animal?
7. Name one of the activities or actions that are deemed unacceptable in the laws outlined in Exodus 22.

Answer Key

Multiple-Choice Answers

1. c) They must pay back five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.
2. c) The owner must compensate with the best from their own field.
3. b) They must pay for the damaged crops.

True/False Answers

4. True
5. False

Short-Answer Key

6. You should return it to them.
7. Answers may vary, but one example is: practicing sorcery is forbidden.