

Visuals

Slide 1: Introduction to Leviticus 4

- Visual: A friendly, illustrated book cover titled "Leviticus 4: Learning About Offerings"
- Caption: "Today, we explore a chapter from the Old Testament!"

Slide 2: What is a Sin Offering?

- Visual: An illustrated altar with a series of animal drawings (a bull, goat, lamb, dove) with playful, cartoonish features.
- Caption: "Sin Offerings: Special gifts given to God to say 'I'm sorry' for mistakes."

Slide 3: The Process of Making Offerings

- Visual: A simple step-by-step diagram of the offering process, using numbered cartoon images:
 1. Approach the altar with the animal.
 2. Place hands on the animal.
 3. Illustration of a priest beside the altar.
- Caption: "How offerings were given."

Slide 4: The Role of the Priest

- Visual: An illustrated priest wearing traditional biblical robes with a kind face.
- Caption: "The priest helps with the offerings."

Slide 5: Different Offerings for Different People

- Visual: A series of cartoon characters representing different community members (high priest, leader, common person) standing with small offerings.
- Caption: "Everyone had a role, no matter who they were!"

Slide 6: Why Offerings?

- Visual: Hearts and a speech bubble saying "Sorry" over a background of cloud illustrations.
- Caption: "Offerings were a way to show love and respect to God."

Slide 7: Activities

- Visual: Illustrated children drawing pictures of animals and altars.
- Caption: "Let's draw our own offering scenes or act out the roles!"

Slide 8: Key Takeaways

- Visual: A checklist with cartoon checkmarks.
 1. Offerings were special gifts.
 2. Everyone could say sorry to God.
 3. Priests helped with the process.
- Caption: "What did we learn today?"

Note:

- Teachers can create these visuals using drawing software or craft paper and markers for a hands-on classroom activity.
- Encourage students to color and label their drawings to reinforce learning.