

Quiz

Leviticus 20 Quiz for Elementary Students

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does Leviticus 20 mainly talk about?

- a) Rules for building a house
- b) Punishments for certain behaviors
- c) Instructions for cooking

2. In Leviticus 20, who is giving the instructions about laws and punishments?

- a) Moses
- b) The Pharaoh
- c) God

3. According to Leviticus 20, what should happen to someone who does not follow the rules?

- a) They should be ignored
- b) There will be a punishment
- c) They should be given a prize

True or False Questions

4. True or False: Leviticus 20 says it is okay to break the rules if you have a good reason.

5. True or False: According to Leviticus 20, the people should follow the laws to stay pure and different from other nations.

Short Answer Questions

6. Why do you think rules and punishments were important in Leviticus 20?

7. How might following these rules help the community in Leviticus 20?

Answer Key

Multiple Choice Answers

- 1. b) Punishments for certain behaviors
- 2. c) God
- 3. b) There will be a punishment

True or False Answers

- 4. False
- 5. True

Short Answer Responses

6. Answers may vary but might include: Rules and punishments were important to keep order and make sure people behaved in a way that was seen as right and fair, protecting the community.

7. Answers may vary but might include: Following these rules could help the community by making sure everyone is treated well and fairly, which could lead to a peaceful and safe place to live.