Reflection

1. Understanding the Rules:

What are some of the special rules for the priests mentioned in Leviticus 21? Why do you think these rules were important for them?

2. Caring for the Community:

How do the priests' responsibilities help take care of the people in the community? Can you think of people today who have special roles to help others?

Personal Application

The priests were asked to respect certain things. Can you think of ways you show respect to people in your life, like teachers, parents, or friends?

Even if you're not a priest, what are some ways you can be a good leader or set a good example in your school or family?

Connection to Daily Life

5. Special Roles:

Do you have any special responsibilities at home or school? How do you feel when you do a good job with them?

6. Caring for Others:

How can you care for the people around you, just like the priests cared for their community? Share a time when you helped someone recently.

Prayer

7. Gratitude:

Write a short prayer thanking God for the special roles and responsibilities you have. Ask for help to do them well.

8. Guidance:

Pray for guidance in being a good leader or helper, asking God to show you ways to serve others in your daily life.

9. Strength:

Ask God for strength to follow rules and do what is right, even when it feels difficult.

If you could make a special rule for your family or classroom to help everyone get along better, what would it be and why?

12. Discuss:

Why do you think it is important to have rules and guidelines in our lives? Who do you trust to help make good rules for you?
