Key Verse: Leviticus 24:15 (NIV):

"Say to the Israelites: 'Anyone who curses their God will be held responsible.'"

Creative Ways to Memorize the Verse:

1. Rhyme and Rhythm:

Set the verse to a simple tune or rhythm, similar to a nursery rhyme. This can help make it catchy and fun to recite. For example:

"To all the Israelites, we say,
Curse God? No, no way!
You'll be responsible, it's true,
Be kind in what you say and do!"

2. Hand Motions:

Create simple hand motions to go along with the verse:

- "Say to the Israelites" - Point outward like you're speaking.
- "Anyone who curses their God" - Shake your head 'no' with a finger.
- "Will be held responsible" - Hold your hands up as if balancing something heavy.

3. Call and Response:

Have students work in pairs or small groups, where one person says, "Say to the Israelites," and the others respond with the rest of the verse. Switching roles will reinforce memorization.

4. Verse Puzzle Challenge:

Write out pieces of the verse on separate index cards and mix them up. Challenge the students to put the cards in the correct order as quickly as possible, timing them for fun.
