

Music

Worship Activities and Song Recommendations for Leviticus 27

1. Song Paraphrase: "Dedicated to Him"

Lyrics Paraphrase:
(To the tune of "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star")

We give our best to God today,
Like offerings back in Moses' day.
Gifts and vows that show we care,
Held with love and handled fair.
We serve with joy and gratitude,
Giving to God our attitude.

Suggested Actions:

- Verse 1: Hands open, moving them up and down like serving.
- Chorus: Point to the sky, placing hands over the heart.
- Verse 2: Mimic giving something from the heart with hand gestures.

Connection to Lesson:

This song simplifies the message of dedicating oneself and offerings to God, encouraging kids to think about how they can give their best.

2. Worship Activity: "Generous Hearts Craft"

Materials:

- Paper hearts
- Markers
- Stickers

Instructions:

Each child decorates a paper heart with what they can dedicate to God, like kindness, helping others, or praying every day.

Connection to Lesson:

Relates to the idea of dedicating something valuable to God, just as vows were fulfilled in Leviticus 27.

3. Song: "I Will Follow (I'll Give My Best)"

Lyrics Paraphrase:
(Adapted to a repetitive and engaging melody)

I will follow, I will give,
My best to God as long as I live.
With my hands and with my heart,
I will always do my part.
Promises made, promises true,

I'll give my best to God and you!

Suggested Actions:

- Verse 1: Walk in place, hands open for "follow" and hands over heart for "give my best."
- Chorus: Point to others and self on "my best to God and you."

Connection to Lesson:

This emphasizes commitment and loyalty through actions and dedication, supporting the theme of vows.

4. Worship Activity: "Vow Reminder Bracelets"

Materials:

- Elastic strings
- Beads with letters
- Small charms

Instructions:

Kids create bracelets with beads spelling out a word that represents what they choose to dedicate to God.

Connection to Lesson:

Acts as a physical reminder of their dedication, linking to how people in Leviticus pledged offerings as a sign of devotion.