

Games

Game 1: Bible Mother Matching Game

- Objective: Match each Bible character with their mother.
- Number of Players: 2-6
- Materials Needed:
 - Index cards or paper cut into cards
 - Pen or marker
- Setup:
 - On separate cards, write the names of Bible mothers (e.g., Mary, Hannah, Sarah) and their children (e.g., Jesus, Samuel, Isaac).
 - Shuffle the cards and place them face down in a grid.
- Instructions:
 1. Players take turns flipping over two cards.
 2. If the cards are a mother and her child, the player keeps the pair and takes another turn.
 3. If they do not match, the cards are flipped back face down, and the next player takes their turn.
 4. Continue until all the pairs are found.
 5. The player with the most pairs wins.
- Reinforcement:
 - This game helps students recognize important maternal figures in the Bible, reinforcing their stories and significance.

Game 2: Mother's Day Bible Verse Relay

- Objective: Assemble a scrambled Bible verse about mothers as quickly as possible.
- Number of Players: 4-10, in two teams
- Materials Needed:
 - Strips of paper with a Bible verse about mothers (e.g., Proverbs 31:28 "Her children arise and call her blessed") written on them, each word on a separate strip
- Setup:
 - Scatter the strips of paper around a room or designated area.
- Instructions:
 1. Divide players into two teams.
 2. On "go," players race to find the strips and bring them back to their team's area.
 3. Once all strips are collected, teams must arrange the words in the correct order to form the verse.
 4. The first team to correctly assemble the verse wins.
- Reinforcement:
 - Players engage with Bible verses relating to mothers, improving their ability to memorize and understand their meaning and context.

Game 3: Who Am I? Bible Mothers Edition

- Objective: Guess the identity of the Bible mother based on clues.
- Number of Players: 3-10
- Materials Needed:
 - Headbands or paper clips
 - Cards with names and clues about Bible mothers (e.g., Eve: "The first woman created")
- Setup:

- Players wear headbands or use paper clips to attach a card to their forehead without looking at it.
- Instructions:
 1. Each player, on their turn, asks the group yes-or-no questions to guess the name on their card.
 2. Questions continue until a player correctly guesses their Bible mother, then play moves to the next person.
 3. Continue until all players have guessed correctly.
- Reinforcement:
 - Encourages players to recall and think critically about the roles and stories of mothers in the Bible, enhancing their personal connection and knowledge.
