Take-Home Assignment: Reflections on Numbers 20

Objective:

To explore the lessons and themes presented in Numbers 20 and reflect on their significance in our lives. This assignment is designed to be completed in 15 minutes and can be done with family members to encourage discussion and learning together.

1. Read and Discuss:

Start by reading Numbers 20 with your family. If needed, use a children's Bible or online resources for better understanding. Once you've read the passage, discuss the following questions:

- Who are the main characters in the story?
- What important events happen in Numbers 20?
- How do the people in the story react to the challenges they face?

2. Reflect:

Think about the story and what it teaches us about trust and leadership. Discuss with your family:

- Why is it important to trust in our leaders and in God?
- How do Moses and Aaron handle the situation when the people complain?
- What can we learn from their actions and the consequences they faced?

3. Family Activity: Water from the Rock

Materials Needed:

- A small rock or pebble
- A cup of water
- A paper and pen

Activity:

- Pretend that the rock you have is the one Moses struck. Discuss as a family how miraculous it would be if water came from the rock.

- Pour some water into a cup, representing the water that flowed from the rock.

- Reflect on the importance of water in our lives and the miracle of having enough to drink every day.

Question for Discussion:

- How do you think the people felt when they saw water coming from the rock? How would you feel if you were in their place?

4. Drawing Exercise:

Draw a picture of the scene where Moses strikes the rock and the water flows. Use colors to bring the story to life.

Include these elements in your drawing:

- Moses holding his staff
- The rock with water flowing out
- The people reacting to what is happening

5. Personal Reflection:

Write a short paragraph about a time when you had to deal with a difficult situation. How did you handle it? Is there anything you would do differently after learning from the story in Numbers 20?

Conclusion:

Gather as a family to share what each of you learned from this assignment. Discuss how the lessons from Numbers 20 can be applied to everyday life and the importance of faith and obedience. Thank everyone for participating in this reflection time.
