Take-Home Assignment: Exploring Numbers 27

Dear Students and Families,

Today, we learned an important lesson from Numbers 27 in the Bible. At home, we'll reflect on its teachings about fairness, family, and courage. Please complete the activities and discuss the questions below with your family.

Reading Reflection:

1. Read Numbers 27:1-11 together as a family.
2. Discuss what happens in the story:
  - Who are the daughters of Zelophehad?
  - What was their request?
  - How did Moses help them?

Questions for Discussion:

1. Why do you think the daughters of Zelophehad were brave?
2. How did God respond to their request?
3. What can this story teach us about fairness and standing up for what is right?

Activities:

1. Drawing Activity:
  - Draw a picture of the daughters of Zelophehad talking to Moses. Show their bravery and determination. Share your drawing with your family and explain what is happening in your picture.
2. Role-Play Exercise:
  - Act out a short play with your family. Choose roles: the daughters of Zelophehad, Moses, and God. Recreate the scene where the daughters make their request. Discuss how each character might feel.
3. Family Fairness Discussion:
  - Think of a time when something was unfair at home or school. Share your experience with your family. How was the situation resolved? Talk about ways to be fair to others.

Creative Writing:

Write a short paragraph about a time you needed to be brave. What was the situation, and how did you handle it? Share your story with your family.
