

Takehome

Assignment Title: Understanding Family and Inheritance in 'Numbers 36'

Objective:

To understand the story and teachings of Numbers 36 and reflect on the importance of family and shared blessings.

Instructions:

1. Read Together: Gather with your family and read the story of Numbers 36 from a child-friendly Bible or retelling.
2. Discuss the Story: With your family, talk about what happened in the story. Discuss why family and land were important to the daughters of Zelophehad.

Activities:

Activity 1: Story Summary

- Write a short summary of the Numbers 36 story in your own words. Discuss why the daughters of Zelophehad came to Moses and what decision was made about their inheritance.

Activity 2: Family and Inheritance

- Family Tree: Draw a simple family tree with your family. Share with them how families are important and discuss any family traditions or blessings that are passed down.

Activity 3: Skit or Role-play

- With your family, create a short skit or role-play the scene where the daughters of Zelophehad speak to Moses. Each person can choose a character and act out what they say and decide.

Questions for Reflection:

1. Why was inheritance important to the daughters of Zelophehad?
2. How do the decisions made in Numbers 36 show fairness and consideration for everyone?
3. What lessons can we learn about speaking up for what is right from this story?
4. How does your family share responsibilities and blessings with each other?

Exercises:

- Drawing Exercise: Draw a picture of the family scene from the story of Numbers 36. Use your imagination to show what you think the characters looked like.
- Create a Family Motto: With your family, create a motto or saying that represents what's important to your family, similar to the shared blessings in the story.

Closing Thought:

This story shows the importance of family, fairness, and speaking up for what is right. Always remember that you are a part of a family, and each one of you brings something special to it.