Recommended Songs and Activities for Joshua 4

1. Song: "Joshua 4: The River Song"
Lyrics (Paraphrased):
- Verse 1: "When God stopped the river, the path was clear / Twelve stones as a memory for all who hear."
- Chorus: "Remember, remember, the stones on the ground / God's love and his power, a story profound."

Actions:
- Verse: Pretend to make a path with your hands, parting a river.
- Chorus: Hold up hands like stones, then bring hands to heart when referring to God’s love.

Music Connection: This song emphasizes remembering God's miracles. It connects to Joshua 4 by celebrating the significance of the stones Joshua commanded to be taken from the Jordan River as a sign of God's faithfulness and power.

2. Activity: "Building the Memory Altar"
- Materials: 12 small cardboard boxes as stones, markers, and stickers.
- Activity: Have students decorate the boxes with words or images depicting something they are thankful for or a promise they remember from God. Stack them to form an altar.
- Connection: This activity mirrors the stacking of stones in Joshua 4 and reinforces the importance of remembering God's deeds.

3. Song: "Walking Through the River"
Lyrics (Paraphrased):
- Verse 1: "Step by step, we walk with faith / God will lead and make a way."
- Chorus: "March along, forever strong / With God's help, we can’t go wrong."

Actions:
- Verse: March in place slowly, emphasizing each step.
- Chorus: March energetically, flexing muscles to show strength.

Music Connection: This song illustrates trust in God's guidance, reflecting how the Israelites crossed the Jordan River under Joshua's leadership. The actions reinforce the theme of moving forward with faith.

4. Reflection Activity: "Stone Stories"
- Activity: Gather in a circle and pass around a small stone. Each student shares a short story or thought about a time they felt God’s presence or help.
- Connection: Relates to how the stones were used as a conversation starter about God's works in Joshua 4. Encourages students to recognize and share their experiences of God’s presence.

Summary:
These songs and activities are crafted to engage elementary students with the story of Joshua 4. Each element is designed to encourage interaction, foster understanding, and instill the lesson of faith and remembrance in a way that is accessible and memorable for young learners.
