Guided Journaling Prompts for Joshua 15

Reflection

1. Explore the Passage:
- What did you find most interesting about Joshua chapter 15?
- Who are the main people mentioned in this chapter? What can you learn from them?

2. Understanding the Land:
- How is the land divided among the people?
- Why do you think it was important for them to have clear boundaries?

3. Personal Land:
- What are some places that are important to you? Why do you value them?

Personal Application

4. Inheritance Today:
- What does "inheritance" mean to you? Is there something special passed down in your family that you cherish?
- Think about something you have received from your family or friends. How does it make you feel?

5. Responsibility:
- The people in Joshua 15 were given land to take care of. What is something you are responsible for taking care of? How do you do it?

6. Helping Others:
- The land was divided among different groups. How can you share what you have with others in your life?

Prayer

7. Gratitude:
- Write a short prayer thanking God for the good things and places in your life. What are you most thankful for today?

8. Guidance:
- Ask God for wisdom in your responsibilities. What specific help do you need, and how can you grow in taking care of what you have been given?

9. Caring for Others:
- Pray for the people in your life. How can you show kindness and generosity to them this week?

Open-Ended Questions

10. Connection to Daily Life:
- How do you think the lessons from Joshua 15 can be applied to your daily routine or school life?
- What would you change in your daily activities to better reflect the teachings of this chapter?

11. Dreaming of the Future:
- If you could choose a place to call your own, what would it be like, and why would you choose it? How can you work towards making this dream a reality?

Use these prompts to think deeply, connect with your personal experiences, and talk to God about the journey you are on. Happy journaling!
