Take-Home Assignment: Exploring Joshua 15

Dear Students,

Today, we will learn about Joshua 15, a chapter from the Bible. This chapter talks about the land given to the tribe of Judah. Let's explore this chapter and understand its importance through some fun activities and questions!

Activity 1: Map Making

1. Materials Needed: Paper, crayons or markers, and a ruler.
2. Draw a large map of a piece of land, use your imagination! Include mountains, rivers, and cities.
3. Label different areas and name them like "City of Kindness" or "River of Sharing."
4. Share your map with your family and explain why you named these places.

Activity 2: Family Discussion

Gather your family for a discussion and answer these questions together:

1. Why do you think it was important for the tribes to have their own land?
2. What are some things that make your home special to you?
3. How can we take care of our own homes and communities like Judah took care of their land?

Activity 3: Gratitude Journal

1. Write a short paragraph about something you’re grateful for in your home or community.
2. Share your gratitude with a family member and ask them what they’re thankful for.

Reflection Questions

After completing the activities, take a moment to think about the following questions:

1. How did drawing the map help you understand what it might have been like for the tribe of Judah to receive their land?
2. What can we learn from the tribe of Judah about working together as a family or community?
3. Did you learn anything new about your family's thoughts or feelings during your discussion?

Family Activity

Plan a special family evening where everyone can contribute to making a simple meal together. Discuss how sharing responsibilities and working together can make tasks easier and more enjoyable.

Remember, these activities and questions are meant to help you think about the importance of community, gratitude, and teamwork. Enjoy exploring and sharing with your family!

Have fun!
