Journaling Prompts for Joshua 20

Reflection
1. Understanding Refuge
- What is a city of refuge as described in Joshua 20? Why do you think it was important for people to have a place like this?
- Imagine you are someone seeking refuge in one of these cities. How might you feel when you arrive at the city gates?

Personal Application
2. Finding Safety
- Have you ever had a place you went to feel safe or to calm down when things were difficult? Describe what that place is like and how it makes you feel.
- How can you be a source of safety and kindness for someone who is having a tough time?

3. Making Amends
- Joshua 20 focuses on providing a fair chance for people to explain their actions. Have you ever made a mistake and wanted a chance to make it right? What did you do and how did it feel?

Open-Ended Questions
4. Thoughtful Actions
- Why do you think it's important to listen to both sides of a story before making a decision about what happened?
- How can doing this help prevent misunderstandings among friends or classmates?

5. Connecting with Others
- Think about a time when you helped someone or someone helped you. What did you learn from that experience about the importance of support and understanding?

Prayer
6. Gratitude and Guidance
- Write a short prayer thanking God for the places and people who make you feel safe. Ask for help in being a source of refuge and understanding for others.

Encourage students to take their time with each prompt, considering their experiences and how they relate to the lessons from Joshua 20.
