Quiz

Quiz: Joshua 22

Multiple-Choice Questions:

1. Which tribes were sent back to their land by Joshua in Joshua 22?
a) Judah and Simeon
b) Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh
c) Benjamin and Dan

2. What did the tribes build near the Jordan River that caused concern?
a) A tower
b) An altar
c) A city

3. Who did the other Israelites send to talk to the tribes about the altar?
a) Joshua
b) Phinehas the priest
c) Moses

True/False Questions:

4. The altar built by the tribes was meant to be a replacement for the one at the Tabernacle.
True
False

5. The tribes built the altar as a witness between them that they all worship the same God.
True
False

Short-Answer Questions:

6. Why were the Israelites worried about the altar that was built by the Jordan River?

7. In the end, was the misunderstanding about the altar resolved peacefully? How?

Answer Key

Multiple-Choice Answers:
1. b) Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh
2. b) An altar
3. b) Phinehas the priest

True/False Answers:
4. False
5. True

Short-Answer Answers:

6. The Israelites were worried because they thought the altar was built as a separate place of worship, which could lead to division and idolatry against God.

7. Yes, the misunderstanding was resolved peacefully. The tribes explained that the altar was a symbol and testimony of their shared worship of God, not for sacrifices, and the other Israelites were satisfied with this explanation.