Slide 1: Introduction to Joshua 22

Visual: A map showing the division of the land of Canaan among the twelve tribes of Israel. Highlight Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh east of the Jordan River.
Caption: "The Division of the Promised Land"
Description: Use bright colors to differentiate the lands allotted to each tribe and clearly label the territories of Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Slide 2: The Return Home

Visual: An illustration of families from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh traveling with backpacks and livestock.
Caption: "Returning to the East: Homeward Bound"
Description: Show the journey with cheerful expressions, depicting the excitement of returning home across the Jordan River.

Slide 3: Building an Impressive Altar

Visual: A simple drawing of an altar made with large stones, set beside the Jordan River.
Caption: "An Altar of Witness by the River"
Description: Emphasize the altar's size and visibility, as a significant structure meant to be noticed.

Slide 4: The Misunderstanding

Visual: Cartoon-style thought bubbles above tribal leaders, some showing shock or anger, signifying confusion and misunderstanding.
Caption: "A Big Misunderstanding"
Description: Show the western tribes’ thought bubble depicting war and disobedience, illustrating their initial reactions to the altar.

Slide 5: Phinehas as a Mediator

Visual: A scene with Phinehas, the priest, talking calmly to the leaders of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh.
Caption: "Phinehas to the Rescue: Understanding the Truth"
Description: Depict Phinehas with open arms, surrounded by the eastern tribes who are explaining their peaceful intentions.

Slide 6: A Shared Faith

Visual: Tribes rejoicing together around the altar, with symbols of peace like doves or olive branches above them.
Caption: "Unity in Faith"
Description: Illustrate a celebratory scene with smiles and gestures of friendship, showing mutual understanding and shared beliefs.

Slide 7: Lesson Summary

Visual: A bulletin board with key points: "Communication is Important," "Assumptions Can Lead to Conflict," and "Faith Unites Us."
Caption: "What We Learned"
Description: Craft a clear and colorful summary of key morals by using images or icons for each concept: a chat symbol, a question mark, and a heart.

Teacher Activity Suggestion

Visual: Hands-on activity where students build small model altars using clay or building blocks.
Caption: "Create Your Own Altar"
Description: Encourage students to craft their own altar models, discussing the themes of communication and unity while they work.
