Journaling

Guided Journaling Prompts for Judges 20

Reflection:
1. Summarize what happened in Judges 20. Who were the main people involved, and what was the main conflict?
2. How did the Israelites decide to solve the problem they were facing?
3. How would you describe the mood or feeling of the Israelites in this chapter? Were they sad, angry, hopeful? Explain why you think so.

Personal Application:
4. Think about a time when you had a disagreement with someone. How did you feel and how did you handle it?
5. The Israelites asked God for guidance before going into battle. How do you seek help when you have a problem?
6. What is something you can do to be a peacemaker when you see a conflict at school or at home?

Connection to Daily Life:
7. What can this chapter teach us about listening to and respecting other people's opinions, even when there is disagreement?
8. How can you show care and support to your friends or family when they are going through a tough time?

Prayer:
9. Write a prayer asking God to help you resolve conflicts peacefully and to always seek His guidance in difficult situations.
10. Thank God for the wisdom and courage He gives you to face problems.

Use these prompts to think deeply about the story and how you can learn from it today!