Take-Home Assignment: Learning from Judges 20

Objective: Reflect on the story of Judges 20, understand its lessons, and discuss its importance with your family.

Story Summary:
Judges 20 tells about a difficult time in Israel's history when the tribes of Israel came together to take action due to a terrible incident in the tribe of Benjamin. The chapter shows the importance of seeking justice, working together, and understanding the consequences of conflict.

Activities and Questions:

1. Story Time with Family:
- Read Judges 20 together with your family. You can read aloud or take turns reading different parts of the chapter.

2. Reflect and Discuss:
- After reading, talk about these questions with your family:
- Why did the tribes of Israel gather against the tribe of Benjamin?
- What does this chapter teach us about working together to solve problems?
- What can we learn about the consequences of making wrong choices?

3. Create a Family Timeline:
- Draw a timeline that outlines the events in Judges 20. Include important scenes, such as when the tribes met, the battles, and the resolution.
- Decorate the timeline with drawings or symbols that represent key moments. Share the timeline with your family.

4. Role-Play:
- Choose a moment from Judges 20 and act it out with your family. You could pretend to be the tribes discussing what happened or the people seeking solutions.
- Think about how you would feel if you were in their place. Discuss the feelings and thoughts of each character with your family.

5. Write a Paragraph:
- Write a short paragraph about what you learned from Judges 20. Include something you found interesting or a lesson you think is important.

6. Pray Together:
- End your reflection by praying with your family. Thank God for teaching us through His Word and ask for guidance to make wise choices and live peacefully with others.

Remember: This assignment is not just about understanding a Bible story but learning how to apply its lessons in our lives every day. Enjoy your time exploring these activities with your family!
