Journaling

Guided Journaling Prompts for 1 Samuel 12

Reflection
1. Understanding Samuel's Message:
- What important message does Samuel share with the Israelites in this chapter?
- How does Samuel remind the people of all the ways God has helped them in the past?

2. Samuel's Leadership:
- How does Samuel show he has been a good and fair leader to the people?
- Why do you think it's important for leaders to be honest and fair?

Personal Application
3. Looking Back:
- Can you think of a time when someone has helped you, like God helped the Israelites? How did it make you feel?
- Samuel talked about remembering the good things God has done. What are some good things in your life that you are thankful for?

4. Obeying and Listening:
- Samuel tells the people to obey God and listen to Him. How can you listen to and obey God in your daily life?
- Think of a time when you had to make a choice. How did you decide what was the right thing to do?

Prayer
5. Thankfulness and Guidance:
- Write a short prayer thanking God for the blessings in your life and asking for guidance to make good choices.
- Ask God for help to remember and learn from past experiences.

Connecting to Daily Life
6. Being a Leader:
- If you were a leader like Samuel, what qualities would you try to have?
- How can you be a good leader or helper to the people around you, like your family or friends?

7. Trusting God:
- Why do you think it's important to trust and have faith in God, especially when things are difficult?
- Share an example of a time when trusting God helped you or someone you know. How did it turn out?
