

Visuals

Slide 1: "Title Slide"

- Visual: Large title text with "2 Samuel 4" written in bold, colorful letters.
- Caption: "The Story of Ish-Bosheth's Downfall"
- Description: A simple and engaging title slide to introduce the lesson.

Slide 2: "Map of Ancient Israel"

- Visual: A simple map highlighting important regions, including Mahanaim and Hebron.
- Caption: "Where the Story Takes Place"
- Description: This map helps students to locate where the events of the story unfolded.

Slide 3: "Who is Ish-Bosheth?"

- Visual: A cartoon illustration of Ish-Bosheth with a crown to denote his kingship.
- Caption: "Meet Ish-Bosheth: The Last King in Saul's line."
- Description: Provide background information about Ish-Bosheth and his role.

Slide 4: "Baanah and Rechab"

- Visual: Two distinct character cartoons with name tags: Baanah and Rechab, looking determined.
- Caption: "The Two Brothers: Baanah and Rechab"
- Description: Introduce the two brothers who play a vital role in this chapter.

Slide 5: "The Plan"

- Visual: An illustration of a scroll or a piece of parchment with mysterious drawings, suggesting a secret plan.
- Caption: "Baanah & Rechab's Secret Plan"
- Description: Discuss the plot the brothers hatch to end Ish-Bosheth's rule.

Slide 6: "Ish-Bosheth's Downfall"

- Visual: A cartoon depiction of a simple throne, empty with fallen crown and sword, symbolizing the fall of Ish-Bosheth.
- Caption: "The Fall of a King"
- Description: Illustrate the result of Baanah and Rechab's actions.

Slide 7: "David's Justice"

- Visual: Picture of King David, issuing a command with a balanced scale, representing fairness and justice.
- Caption: "King David's Fair Judgment"
- Description: Emphasize David's reaction and the importance of justice in the story.

Slide 8: "Moral of the Story"

- Visual: An open book with glowing light emanating from it, with words like "Justice," "Leadership," and "Integrity."
- Caption: "What We Learn from 2 Samuel 4"
- Description: Discuss the moral lessons, focusing on integrity and rightful leadership.

Slide 9: "Activity: Draw and Reflect"

- Visual: A blank sheet with crayons and pencils around it.
- Caption: "Create Your Own Ending or Scene!"
- Description: Encourage students to draw their favorite part of the story or continue the story imagining a different ending.

Slide 10: "Review and Questions"

- Visual: Cartoon-style question marks and smiling faces.
- Caption: "Let's Review: Discussion Time!"
- Description: Pose simple questions to the students about the story to reinforce learning.