

Visuals

Slide 1: Introduction to 2 Samuel 10

- Visual: Title Slide with Background Image
- Description: Use an image of an ancient scroll or a serene landscape that reflects the historical setting.
- Caption: "Exploring 2 Samuel 10: A Story from the Ancient World"

Slide 2: The Setting and Characters

- Visual: Character Map
- Description: Display cartoon-style illustrations of the main characters, such as King David, Hanun, and Joab.
- Caption: "Meet the Characters: King David, Joab, and Hanun"

Slide 3: The Misunderstanding

- Visual: Comic Strip Illustration
- Description: Create a three-panel comic strip showing the mistaken intentions—David sending messengers and Hanun's advisors misinterpreting their visit.
- Caption: "A Big Misunderstanding!"

Slide 4: The Insult

- Visual: Simple Diagram
- Description: Show a diagram of the messengers being humiliated by Hanun (beards half-shaven and clothes cut).
- Caption: "A Humiliating Insult"

Slide 5: Preparing for Battle

- Visual: Battle Formation Diagram
- Description: Illustrate a simple map showing the positions of Joab's army versus the Ammonites and their allies.
- Caption: "Preparing for Battle: Joab's Strategy"

Slide 6: The Battle

- Visual: Action Scene
- Description: Illustrate a cartoon-style battlefield with both sides facing off, emphasizing bravery.
- Caption: "A Battle of Bravery and Strategy"

Slide 7: Resolution and Peace

- Visual: Peace Agreement Scroll
- Description: Show a cartoon of a scroll, representing the peace that followed the battle.
- Caption: "Peace Restored: The Outcome"

Slide 8: Moral of the Story

- Visual: Illustrated Moral
- Description: Use a simple illustration depicting themes like understanding, respect, and communication.
- Caption: "Lessons Learned: The Importance of Communication and Respect"

Slide 9: Activity Time

- Visual: Interactive Activity Prompt

- Description: Display instructions for a classroom activity, such as drawing a favorite scene or reenacting a part of the story.
- Caption: "Get Creative: Draw or Act Out Your Favorite Part!"