

Visuals

Slide 1: Introduction to 2 Samuel 12

Visual: An illustration of a peaceful ancient city, representing Jerusalem.

Caption: "Welcome to Ancient Jerusalem - The Setting of 2 Samuel 12."

Description: Start by introducing the geographical and historical setting of the story to provide context.

Slide 2: King David and the Prophet Nathan

Visual: A drawing showing King David sitting on a throne with Prophet Nathan approaching him.

Caption: "King David and Nathan the Prophet."

Description: Explain that Nathan was a prophet sent by God to deliver a message to King David.

Slide 3: The Parable of the Rich Man and the Poor Man

Visual: Two simple drawings side by side - on the left, a rich man with many sheep; on the right, a poor man with one little lamb.

Caption: "The Rich Man, The Poor Man, and the Little Lamb."

Description: Narrate the story of the rich man who took the poor man's only lamb.

Slide 4: Nathan Confronts David

Visual: A dramatic scene with Nathan pointing his finger at David with a concerned expression.

Caption: "Nathan Reveals David's Wrongdoings."

Description: Explain how Nathan used the parable to make David realize his mistake.

Slide 5: David's Repentance

Visual: A sorrowful King David, kneeling with clasped hands, symbolizing repentance and prayer.

Caption: "David Seeks Forgiveness."

Description: Highlight David's response of repentance after realizing his sins.

Slide 6: God's Forgiveness and Consequences

Visual: A balanced scale with 'Forgiveness' on one side and 'Consequences' on the other, showing their coexistence.

Caption: "God Forgives, But There Are Consequences."

Description: Discuss the concept of forgiveness and the importance of accepting consequences for one's actions.

Slide 7: Lessons from 2 Samuel 12

Visual: A simple list of moral lessons on a chalkboard, such as honesty, repentance, and accountability.

Caption: "What Can We Learn?"

Description: Summarize the key moral teachings from the chapter that are relevant to the students' lives.

Slide 8: Activity and Reflection

Visual: An empty page with a pencil and question marks, indicating an activity.

Caption: "Reflection Time - What Would You Do?"

Description: Encourage students to write or draw their thoughts on how they can apply the lessons in their everyday lives.