

Visuals

Slide 1: Title Slide

- Visual: A simple, colorful title card with the words "2 Samuel 20: A Tale of Rebellion and Loyalty"
- Caption: Introduction to 2 Samuel 20
- Description: Use bright and cheerful colors with illustrations of a scroll or book to signify the Bible.

Slide 2: The Rebellion of Sheba

- Visual: Cartoon illustration of Sheba, depicted as a mischievous character, standing on a rock addressing a group.
- Caption: "Sheba, the troublemaker, calls for rebellion against King David!"
- Description: Show Sheba with exaggerated gestures to convey that he is speaking loudly and fiercely.

Slide 3: Joab and the Troops

- Visual: A simple map showing the path from Jerusalem to Abel (where Joab pursued Sheba), with cartoon icons of soldiers.
- Caption: "Joab leads David's troops to capture the rebel Sheba."
- Description: Arrows indicating movement; soldiers with spears and shields; label important locations.

Slide 4: The Wise Woman of Abel

- Visual: Illustration of a wise woman speaking to Joab at the city wall, with puzzled townspeople around.
- Caption: "A wise woman saves the city with her smart words!"
- Description: The woman having a calm and wise appearance, speaking to Joab, who looks determined.

Slide 5: Peace Restored

- Visual: The city of Abel, appearing peaceful and calm, with townspeople smiling and working.
- Caption: "With Sheba gone, peace returns to the kingdom."
- Description: Drawings of happy kids playing, families together, emphasizing a harmonious community.

Slide 6: Lessons Learned

- Visual: A bulletin board with pinned notes: "Teamwork," "Wisdom," "Loyalty," each with a small icon (e.g., handshake, light bulb, heart).
- Caption: "What can we learn from this story?"
- Description: Notes with simple graphics that symbolize the lessons; use bright colors and playful fonts.

Slide 7: Engaging Activity

- Visual: A simple diagram showing a "story tree" with branches for "Rebellion," "The Chase," and "Peace Restored."
- Caption: "Create your story tree to retell the tale!"
- Description: Encourage students to draw their own trees during the lesson to retell the story, with space to write or draw images.