Take-Home Assignment: Reflecting on 1 Kings 5

Introduction:

Today, we learned about 1 Kings 5, a chapter in the Bible. This chapter talks about King Solomon and his plans to build a beautiful temple for God. With the help of his friend, King Hiram, Solomon begins to gather materials and workers for this important project. The story teaches us about friendship, cooperation, and working together to achieve a great goal.

Activity:

Build Your Own Temple Model

Get creative and build a model of a temple using items you can find at home. You can use:

- Building blocks like LEGO
- Craft sticks or popsicle sticks
- Cardboard or shoe boxes
- Any other materials you find fun and interesting!

Steps:

1. With your family, discuss how you imagine Solomon’s temple might have looked.
2. Gather your materials and start building! You can choose to make it big or small.
3. When you're done, take a picture of your model and share it with a family member or friend.

Reflection Questions:

1. Why do you think it was important for King Solomon to build a temple for God?
- Discuss this question with your family and think about why having a special place to worship might be meaningful.

2. What does friendship mean to you?
- Think about King Solomon’s friendship with King Hiram. How important do you think it was for the temple project?

3. How can you work together with your family or friends to achieve something important?
- Share examples from your own experiences when teamwork helped you accomplish something.

Exercise:

Story Sharing

1. Write a short story or draw a picture about a time you worked with someone else to achieve something important. It could be about a school project, a family event, or a fun activity with friends.
2. Share your story or picture with your family and discuss how teamwork helped make the project successful.

Conclusion:

Remember how King Solomon worked with others to build something special. We can learn from his story by remembering the importance of friendship, teamwork, and using our talents to help those around us. Enjoy working on your temple model and reflecting on these important lessons!
