Take-Home Assignment: Reflecting on Acts 3

Reading Reflection

Dear Students,

Today we talked about Acts Chapter 3, where Peter and John healed a man who could not walk. This amazing story shows us the power of faith and helping others. Let's reflect on what we've learned and do some fun activities with our family.

Story Summary

In Acts 3, Peter and John are on their way to the temple to pray. At the temple gate, they meet a man who cannot walk. This man asks for money, but instead, Peter, with faith in Jesus, heals him. The man joyfully walks, jumps, and praises God. This miracle amazes everyone around and gives Peter the chance to speak about Jesus.

Activities

1. Family Story Time

- Read: Gather with your family and read Acts 3:1-10.
- Discuss: Talk about how Peter and John helped the man. Why do you think their act of kindness was important?

2. Draw the Story

- Draw a picture of the moment when Peter helped the man to walk.
- Use colors to show the happiness of the man jumping and praising God.
- Share your drawing with your family and explain what's happening in the picture.

3. Act it Out

- With your family, act out the story of Peter and the man who was healed.
- Choose someone to be Peter, someone to be John, and someone to be the man.
- Practice the scene where Peter speaks to the man and helps him stand.

Questions for Reflection

1. Why do you think Peter decided to heal the man instead of giving him money?
2. How would you feel if you were the man who was healed?
3. How can you help others in your school or community, like Peter helped the man?

Exercise

- Write a short paragraph about a time when you helped someone, or someone helped you. How did it make you feel?

Remember, small acts of kindness can make a big difference in someone's life, just as Peter and John did in Acts 3. Enjoy your activities and reflections with your family!
