Journaling

Suggested Journaling Prompts for '1 Kings 14'

Reflection
1. Remembering the Story:
- Who are the main characters in 1 Kings 14? Write down what you remember about them.

2. Actions and Consequences:
- What event or action stood out to you in this chapter? Why do you think it was important?

3. Lessons from the Story:
- What lesson do you think God wants us to learn from this story? Write about how you think this lesson can help people today.

Personal Application
1. Obedience and Choices:
- Have you ever faced a situation where you had to decide to do the right thing, even if it was difficult? Write about what happened and how you felt.

2. Listening to God:
- Sometimes God speaks to us through the Bible, prayer, or people around us. Write about a time you think God might have been trying to tell you something important. How did you respond?

3. Being a Good Leader:
- King Jeroboam made choices that were not pleasing to God. What qualities do you think make a good leader? How can you show those qualities in your life?

Prayer
1. Think about someone you know who might need guidance or help right now. Write a prayer for them, asking God to provide wisdom and support.

2. Include a prayer asking God to help you make wise choices and to understand His will for your life.

3. Thank God for one specific lesson you learned from 1 Kings 14 and ask Him to help you apply it in your daily life.

Open-ended Questions
1. Understanding God's Plan:
- How do you think God's plan was working even in difficult situations in 1 Kings 14?

2. Connecting to Daily Life:
- Sometimes we make mistakes like King Jeroboam. What can you do when you realize you've made a wrong choice?

3. Sharing Your Story:
- Imagine you could tell someone else about what you learned from this chapter. What would you share with them? How do you think it might help them in their life?