Guided Journaling Prompts for 1 Kings 15

Reflect on the Story:
1. In 1 Kings 15, we learn about King Asa. Can you describe what kind of king he was and some good things he did to follow God?

2. Think about Asa's decision to remove idols and follow God. Why do you think this was important? How did it affect the people in his kingdom?

Connect to Your Life:
1. Asa made choices to follow God even when it was tough. Can you think of a time when you made a good choice, even if it wasn't easy? Write about it.

2. Asa had to remove things from his kingdom that weren't pleasing to God. Are there things in your life you need to change or remove to follow God better? What could they be?

Personal Application:
1. Asa showed courage by listening to God and doing what was right. How can you show courage by doing the right thing this week, even if others don’t?

2. King Asa had help from God when he made good choices. Who helps you when you need to make the right decisions? How can you ask for their support when you need it?

Prayer Time:
1. Write a short prayer asking God to help you make good and godly choices in your life.

2. Pray for courage like King Asa, asking God to help you stand up for what is right and remove distractions that might keep you from following Him fully.

Open-Ended Questions:
1. What does leadership mean to you, and how can you be a good leader in your class or at home?

2. How can you practice listening to God in your daily life? What are some ways you can hear His guidance?

3. Is there someone you admire for their good choices and strong character? What can you learn from their example?
