Take-Home Assignment: Reflecting on 1 Kings 22

Dear Students,

Today we're going to reflect on a story from the Bible, specifically from 1 Kings 22. This chapter will guide us in understanding the importance of listening to God and the wisdom in seeking truthful counsel. Have fun exploring the story with your family!

Part 1: Read Together

Read the story of 1 Kings 22 with your family. You can find it in a Bible or look up the story online. It's about a king named Ahab, another king named Jehoshaphat, and a prophet named Micaiah. Take turns reading the verses with your family.

Part 2: Discuss the Story

1. Who were the main characters in the story?
- Discuss who King Ahab, King Jehoshaphat, and the prophet Micaiah were.

2. What was the big decision King Jehoshaphat and King Ahab needed to make?
- Talk about the advice they were seeking regarding going into battle.

3. What did Micaiah say, and why was his message important?
- Discuss how Micaiah’s message was different from the other prophets.

Part 3: Activities

Activity 1: Create a Comic Strip

Draw a comic strip with 4-6 panels that retells the story of 1 Kings 22. Focus on the key events, like the kings' consultation and Micaiah’s prophecy. Use speech bubbles to show what the characters might have said.

Activity 2: True or False

With a family member, play a game of true or false based on the story. Write down 5 statements about 1 Kings 22. Take turns reading them to a family member, who must decide if they are true or false. Example: “Micaiah always agreed with the kings” (False).

Activity 3: Role Play

Act out a scene as the characters King Ahab, King Jehoshaphat, and Micaiah. Take turns being different characters and think about how each person felt and what they might say.

Part 4: Reflect and Write

Write a short paragraph (3-5 sentences) about what you learned from this story. Why is it important to listen to the truth? How does this story remind us to choose our guides wisely?

Family Time

Share your comic strip, discussion responses, or perform your role play for other family members. Ask them what they think the main lesson of the story is and how it applies to everyday life.

Have Fun and Reflect Well!

Remember, this story teaches us about the value of truth and making wise decisions. Enjoy discussing and learning together with your family!
