Visuals

Slide 1: Introduction to 1 Kings 22

- Visuals: A simple map of ancient Israel, highlighting the region of Samaria and Ramoth-Gilead.
- Caption: "Setting the Scene: Ancient Israel and its Kingdoms".
- Description: Use bright colors to differentiate regions, with labels for key locations. This helps students understand the geographical context.

Slide 2: Key Characters

- Visuals: Cartoon-style portraits of King Ahab, King Jehoshaphat, and Prophet Micaiah.
- Caption: "Meet the Main Characters: Who's Who in the Story".
- Description: Create friendly, recognizable characters with clear labels. Include simple icons next to each to represent their roles (e.g., a crown for kings, a scroll for the prophet).

Slide 3: The Gathering of Kings

- Visuals: Illustration of King Ahab and King Jehoshaphat sitting on thrones with advisors around them.
- Caption: "The Kings Discuss: Should We Go to Battle?"
- Description: Use speech bubbles to show the kings discussing plans, indicating a conversation about going to war.

Slide 4: The Prophets' Predictions

- Visuals: Two scenes - one with false prophets cheering, and another with Prophet Micaiah speaking truthfully.
- Caption: "Different Voices: What Did the Prophets Say?"
- Description: Play with expressions—false prophets smiling and enthusiastic, Micaiah looking calm and sincere. Include a visual element like a thought bubble or cloud for Micaiah's true vision.

Slide 5: The Battle Scene

- Visuals: A simple battle scene with soldiers and chariots.
- Caption: "The Battle at Ramoth-Gilead: A Clash of Armies".
- Description: Depict two armies facing each other, using arrows or flags to show the action and movement in the battle.

Slide 6: Ahab's Disguise and Demise

- Visuals: King Ahab in disguise in a chariot, with an arrow flying towards him.
- Caption: "A King in Disguise: Ahab's Fate".
- Description: Illustrate Ahab in different attire to show his attempt at disguise, with a dramatic arrow trajectory marked towards him.

Slide 7: Lesson and Reflection

- Visuals: An open scroll with a glowing, symbolic message or moral of the story.
- Caption: "What Can We Learn? Choosing Truth and Integrity."

- Description: The scroll should be large and central, with key words like "Truth" and "Integrity" standing out. This can prompt a discussion on how these themes apply today.

These visuals should be colorful and simple, with clear lines and friendly designs to appeal to elementary students.
