Music

Suggested Songs for '2 Kings 1':

1. Song: "Trust and Obey"
- Paraphrase: "When we are blessed, we'll trust God all the way."
- Actions:
- Clap hands on “trust” and “obey.”
- Point upwards on “God.”
- Connection: Emphasizes the importance of trusting God as King Ahaziah should have done instead of consulting a false god.

2. Song: "Our God is a Great Big God"
- Paraphrase: "Our God is very kind, He helps us all the time!"
- Actions:
- Stretch arms wide on "great big."
- Point upwards on "God."
- Connection: Highlights God's power and ability to care for us, contrasting with Ahaziah seeking help elsewhere.

3. Song: "King of Kings and Lord of Lords"
- Paraphrase: "Jesus is the one true King."
- Actions:
- Crown gesture over head on "King."
- March in place on "Lord."
- Connection: Reinforces the idea that only God is the true King, unlike earthly rulers like Ahaziah.

Worship Activity Suggestion:

- Activity: The Story of Elijah and King Ahaziah – Drama Play
- Overview: Children act out the story of Elijah meeting the messengers of King Ahaziah.
- Roles:
- King Ahaziah: Sits on a chair, acting worried.
- Messengers: Pretend to walk towards Elijah.
- Elijah: Stands firm, speaking God's message.
- Classes can rotate roles for inclusivity.
- Props: Simple crown for the king, walking sticks for messengers.
- Narration: An adult reads from 2 Kings 1, pausing for children to act.

Connection to Lesson:

- The drama and songs emphasize the story's theme: trusting in God's power and authority. The drama helps solidify the narrative, while the songs provide a memorable way to remember God's sovereignty.