Song Recommendation: "Open the Eyes of My Heart, Lord"

Paraphrased Lyrics for Kids:
Open my eyes, Lord,
So I can see
All the things
You want for me.

Suggested Actions:
- For "Open my eyes," pretend to open your hands wide in front of your eyes.
- For "So I can see," point to your eyes then sweep your hand outward.
- For "All the things," use both hands to point around the room.
- For "You want for me," point upwards.

Connection to Lesson:
In 2 Kings 6, Elisha prayed for his servant’s eyes to be opened to see God’s protection. This song helps children connect with the idea that God can help us see things we may not understand initially and trust in His presence.

Song Recommendation: "Our God is So Big"

Paraphrased Lyrics for Kids:
Our God is so big,
So strong and so mighty,
There's nothing my God cannot do!

Suggested Actions:
- For "Our God is so big," stretch arms wide.
- For "So strong," make muscle poses.
- For "So mighty," pretend to lift something heavy.
- For "There's nothing," shake head and wag finger.
- For "My God cannot do," point upwards.

Connection to Lesson:
The story of 2 Kings 6 shows God's mighty power through the protection of Elisha. This classic song helps reinforce the lesson that God's strength is always with us.

Worship Activity: "Invisible Army Vision"

Activity Instructions:
1. Materials Needed: Cut-out paper glasses or craft supplies to create simple paper "spy glasses."
2. Setup: Read the story of 2 Kings 6, focusing on the part where Elisha's servant sees the heavenly army protecting them.
3. Activity: Have kids decorate the paper glasses. Encourage them to put on the glasses as a reminder to look for God’s protection and presence in their lives.

4. Discussion: Talk about how sometimes we don't see God working, but He is always with us like the invisible army protecting Elisha.

Connection to Lesson:
This activity engages children in a tangible way to remember that God is at work around them, whether they can see it or not.
