Take-Home Assignment: Learning from Acts Chapter 5

Title: Sharing and Caring

Hello Families,

Today, we learned about Acts Chapter 5, a story from the Bible where the early followers of Jesus learned about the importance of honesty and sharing. Let's continue to explore these important values together at home!

Story Summary:

In Acts 5, Ananias and his wife Sapphira tried to keep some money for themselves after pretending to give it all to the apostles. They were not honest about their sharing, which showed us how important it is to be truthful and kind with what we have.

Activities:

1. Story Time:
- Read a simplified version of Acts 5 together. You can use a children's Bible if you have one.
- After reading, ask your little one, "What did Ananias and Sapphira do, and why was that not a good choice?"

2. Sharing Game:
- Find some of your child’s toys or snacks. Practice sharing them with each other. Talk about how it feels to both give and receive.

3. Art Activity:
- Draw a picture together of a time when you were happy to share with someone.
- Ask your child to share the story behind their drawing.

Questions for Reflection:

1. How does it feel when someone shares with you?
2. Why is it important to be honest like the other believers in the story?
3. What are some ways we can share what we have with others?

Exercise:

- Good Deed Jar:
- Create a "Good Deed Jar" at home. Every time someone does a good deed or shares, place a small object (like a button or a piece of paper) in the jar.
- At the end of the week, count how many good deeds you have done together as a family.

Learning to share and be honest helps us grow together in love and kindness, just like the early believers in Acts. Enjoy your family time, and happy sharing!

Love,
