Visuals

Suggested Visuals & Diagrams for the Lesson on Acts 5:

Slide 1: Introduction to Acts 5
- Visual: An illustrated Bible with a smiling face.
- Caption: "The Amazing Stories from the Bible"
- Description: Begin the lesson with an introduction image of a friendly Bible to make children feel comfortable and excited about learning a new story.

Slide 2: Peter and the Apostles
- Visual: Cartoon-style Peter and a group of Apostles, dressed in colorful robes.
- Caption: "Peter and the Apostles: Friends of Jesus!"
- Description: Show that Peter and the Apostles were friends and followers of Jesus, which helps to establish their role in the story.

Slide 3: The Helping Hands
- Visual: Hands giving food/toys to others.
- Caption: "Helping and Sharing"
- Description: This image represents the acts of kindness and sharing that the apostles were known for.

Slide 4: Ananias and Sapphira
- Visual: Two cartoon characters looking sneaky.
- Caption: "Ananias and Sapphira: It's Not Good to Hide the Truth!"
- Description: Illustrate the main characters in a simple manner to represent their dishonesty but approach the topic with gentleness.

Slide 5: The Telling of Truth
- Visual: A balance scale with a heart on one side and a bag of money on the other.
- Caption: "Tell the Truth and Share"
- Description: This diagram explains the moral of the story: love and honesty are more important than money.

Slide 6: The Angel's Escape
- Visual: An angel gently guiding apostles out of a gate.
- Caption: "Angels Watching Over Us"
- Description: Image of an angel providing guidance, symbolizing hope and divine assistance from the Acts 5 story.

Slide 7: Rejoicing and Teaching
- Visual: Apostles joyfully teaching to a group of attentive children.
- Caption: "Keep Teaching and Spreading Goodness!"
- Description: Highlight the positive outcome and the joy of sharing good news and teachings with others.

Slide 8: Closing with a Prayer
- Visual: Cartoon children with closed eyes and folded hands.
- Caption: "Prayer Time!"
- Description: End the presentation by inviting children to a prayer, promoting reflection on the lesson.

Tips for Teachers:
- Engage with Stories: Use simple language to retell the story of Acts 5, focusing on themes of sharing, honesty, and courage.
- Interactive Components: Encourage students to participate with questions about what they saw and what they felt about each character.
- Craft Activity: Consider a hands-on activity, like creating an "Angel" craft, to help children remember the story visually and physically.

By using these illustrations and ideas, teachers can create an engaging and meaningful lesson for preschoolers, conveying the key themes and morals found in Acts 5 in a way that is both fun and educational.