1. Slide 1: The Apostles and the People
- Visual: Illustration of the apostles in bright clothing, smiling with open arms. Surround them with people of different ages showing looks of awe and happiness.
- Caption: "The apostles spread God's love and performed many miracles."
- Description: Highlight the apostles as kind and positive figures who bring hope and happiness to the people.

2. Slide 2: Healing and Miracles
- Visual: Draw a scene where Peter’s shadow passes over sick people lying on mats, and they look visibly getting better.
- Caption: "Many were healed by the apostles' good works and Peter's shadow."
- Description: Depict the power of belief and faith, showing transformations from sadness to joy.

3. Slide 3: The Angel Opens the Jail
- Visual: Create a simple depiction of a jail cell with joyful expressions on the apostles’ faces as an angel leads them out.
- Caption: "An angel helped the apostles when they were in trouble."
- Description: Use bright colors for the angel and gray tones for the jail, signifying light in darkness.

4. Slide 4: Sharing the Good News
- Visual: Illustration of the apostles speaking to a crowd at the temple. Include doves or rays of light to represent the Holy Spirit.
- Caption: "The apostles shared the good news with everyone."
- Description: Emphasize open and friendly communication, encouraging sharing and friendship.

5. Slide 5: Standing Firm in Faith
- Visual: Show the apostles confidently yet kindly speaking to a group of council members in formal robes.
- Caption: "The apostles were brave and didn't stop sharing their beliefs."
- Description: Convey courage and conviction, with a focus on calm and positive expressions.

6. Slide 6: Rejoicing Together
- Visual: The apostles are outside the temple, surrounded by happy people, celebrating and embracing each other.
- Caption: "Even when things were tough, they were happy to spread love."
- Description: Through smiling faces and warm gestures, demonstrate that there’s joy in persevering through challenges together.

7. Slide 7: Let's Learn from the Apostles
- Visual: A colorful classroom setting with a teacher and children in a circle, reading or engaging with pictures from the Acts of the Apostles.
- Caption: "We can spread love and kindness just like the apostles did."
- Description: Summarize the lesson and encourage preschoolers to act positively, using everyday classroom items as context for their actions.
